

Ekets Uppåkra introduces their new branding

In January 2016, the swedish machining company Ekets Mekaniska acquired the company Uppåkra Mekaniska in Skillingaryd. Since then they have formed the company group Ekets Uppåkra. From now on the companies are presented more united with their new common branding.

The company group Ekets Uppåkra became reality in January 2016 when Ekets Mekaniska acquired Uppåkra Mekaniska. With two plants with complementing skills they have developed one more efficient organization step by step, and from now on they will introduce their new common branding.